The Mass of Installation for Archbishop Allen H. Vigneron 28 January 2009

DIGITAL MEDIA KIT: Materials will be posted online by 9 p.m., Tuesday, 27 January. Documents include a bio, FAQ on transitions in archdiocesan leadership, historical information, statistics, and a description of the Coat of Arms. Images include family photographs, pictures from 1975 ordination, with Popes John Paul and Benedict, at Sacred Heart Major Seminary, in Oakland, and this weekend's arrival in Detroit.

NEWS CONFERENCE: There will be an audio Mult-Box at the 10 a.m. Wednesday news conference in the offices of Blessed Sacrament Cathedral, which are entered off of Trowbridge along the north perimeter of the campus. A disc of the Digital Media kit will be available.

THE MASS: For the 2 p.m. liturgy, there will an audio Mult-Box in church along the southwest wall of the cathedral, near the back. The Catholic Television Network of Detroit (CTND) will have a remote truck on site and is producing a live broadcast with five switched cameras. Space inside the church, especially towards the front, will be extremely limited and restricted. Archdiocesan video and still cameras have priority placement. Audio/video feeds from the truck will be available. The program is appearing locally on CTND and EWTN. Stations are welcome to tape off the air or to take a direct feed from the satellite.
